

CHAPTER 87.

CHAP. 88.

An act for the relief of the Baltimore and Harford Turnpike Company.

Passed
Feb. 17, 1848.

WHEREAS, The Baltimore and Harford turnpike company in extending and completing the twenty miles of roads required of said company to be made by their charter, have incurred a heavy debt, for the payment of which the funds of said company are not adequate—Therefore,

Prea. ble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That said Baltimore and Harford turnpike company, be and they are hereby authorised, in their discretion, and in such manner as they may deem proper, to create an additional number of shares to the present capital stock of said company, and to sell the same, the proceeds of the sale thereof to be applied to the payment of the debt aforesaid; provided nevertheless, that the said capital stock of said company, when so increased, shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, in shares of fifty dollars each.

Capital stock to be increased

Proviso.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall have no effect until it shall be adopted and accepted by a resolution of the President and Managers of the said company, authorised by a general meeting of the stockholders, to be convened for that purpose, a copy of said resolution to be transmitted to the Governor of Maryland, to be filed in the Executive Department.

Assent to be transmitted to Governor.

CHAPTER 88.

An act to incorporate the Howard Street Savings Bank.

Passed
Feb. 5, 1848.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Joseph Simms, Elias Shaw, George C. Addison, Anthony Bönn, George R. Cinnamon, Benjamin C. Barroll, Nathan C. Brooks, Samuel Guest, Moses G. Hinds, William Robinson, Daniel C. H. Emory, John G. Hewes, James L. Collins, William H. Emory, S. M. Cochrane, William Gunnison, Charles S. Willit, David Whitson, John Showacre, George K. Quail, William Gibson, junior, John Higham, William E. Whitson, David Whitson, John B. Emory, William Reese, Amos B. Shaw, John Ahern, James M. Lester, Incorporated.